

Elizabeth A. Vuozzo, CPA Director

Elizabeth Vuozzo, CPA, is a Director in the Hauppauge, New York, office of the Fuoco Group and TFG related entities. In this role she manages the overall operations of the office, and as tax leader for the Long Island practice she supervises and develops the Firm's staff.

With over 30 years of experience in the accounting industry, Liz is the perfect professional to handle the Firm's technical review, quality assurance, tax code research and training.

Liz supervises all of the Firm's Internal Revenue, New York State and State Sales Tax Examinations for individuals, partnerships and corporations. She provides technical review of tax returns as part of the Firm's quality assurance program, and helps ensure that all staff stays current on tax trends, legislative issues, IRS guidance, and changes in the tax laws.

Liz provides business advisory consulting services to all her clients. Her experience and expertise includes assisting clients to develop long-term financial goals, operating budgets, cash flow analysis, and risk management.

In addition, Liz assists her individual clients with income tax planning, as well as tax efficient advice on wealth management, trusts, estate and gifting strategies.
