

Paul M. Wieseneck, CPA

Director

Paul Wieseneck is more than an Accountant or a CPA, he is a trusted advisor to his clients. Whether the client is a high net worth individual, business owner, entrepreneur or entertainer, Paul's financial acumen is sought on topics such as tax planning, estate and trust issues, business operations, as well as investments and retirement planning. If you want a tax-efficient transaction or customized portfolio, Paul is the person whose financial counsel you seek.

Paul serves as Director for Fuoco Group's Tax and Accounting practice, and also has been named Senior Investment Advisor for TFG Financial Advisors, a division of Fuoco Group. Paul has over 40 years of experience as a CPA, and his expertise extends across a depth and breadth of industries. His portfolio of services includes:

- Business Advisory and Strategic Planning
- Tax Planning and Preparation
- Estate Tax Planning, Gifts
- Business Exit Planning
- Forensic Accounting, Expert Witness
- IRS Representation
- Investment Advisory Services

Prior to joining Fuoco Group in 2009, Paul was Managing Partner of the CPA Firm he co-founded, Wieseneck Andres & Co. Paul authored articles on a variety of accounting topics, lectured on tax issues, appeared on radio and TV, and served as a financial expert panelist for a variety of professional organizations' educational events.
